

Heidi is . . .

Unique, loving, funny, generous, understanding, creative and the best darn mom in the whole wide world. She has the most incredible talent for making something from nothing. She can move mountains. She dreams in Technicolor, is beyond intuitive and is a devoted mother, grandmother and wife who goes above and beyond to take care of her loved ones. She's the big sister who locked me in the closet when I was a kid but I love her anyway. Heidi, the most talented designer in the world, the most thoughtful daughter, so creative. She is the queen of appreciation. She is the most giving person on the planet and I know that because I have checked. She catches me when I fall, knows when I'm about to fall, and loves me no matter what I do or don't do. She makes the world a different, more creative place to live in just on her talents alone. She has an amazing mind that dreams, creates, and loves to laugh! Her quiet nature is just one part of her dynamic personality with a quiet voice that grabs one's attention. She'll tackle any problem and get it solved and will take on any challenge. She's simply charming. Heidi is my best friend, my best inspiration, just being in her presence is an inspiration to me. She is one of the most creative, artistic beings I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I treasure her. She is a kindred spirit. Heidi, the warm soothing voice that tells you that your project is o.k., that you are o.k. and that everything is going to be o.k. You can always count on Heidi to be there for you, to help you through a hard time and to cheer you up with some delightful craft. Heidi is an optimist who sees the glass half... painted!
